

Monday Favorite Gadget - Kuisiware 2-in-1 Salt and Pepper Grinder by Lynn's Recipes

For my Monday Favorite Gadget, I am reviewing and demonstrating the Kuisiware 2-in-1 Salt and Pepper Grinder. This product was sent to me to try and review. It has separate compartments for salt and pepper.

This grinder has durable ceramic blades is easy to fill and has a stainless steel finish. The grind can be adjusted by turning the finial knob right for a fine grind or left for a coarser grind. It comes with a lifetime warranty as long as you register it online. Super easy. This grinder is very convenient because you can put salt and pepper in one grinder and it takes up less room on your counter or table. It also comes with caps for both ends to keep the salt and pepper from getting on your counter or table.
