Lynn demonstrates a non-alcoholic drink that is perfect for a summer get together or barbeque. Adapted from lizoncall.com

Ingredients:

- 1/2 gallon orange juice
- 2 small cans pineapple juice
- 1 Tablespoon fresh lemon juice
- 1 small package frozen sliced strawberries, with or without sugar
- 2 cans club soda or lemon lime soda
- ice

In a big pitcher, mix together orange juice, lemon juice and pineapple juice.

Next add sliced strawberries, a bit defrosted.

Mix juice and strawberries together.

Add 2 cans club soda or the lemon lime soda, if you wish it to be a little sweeter.

Pour over ice to serve.
